For a Federal Offense.

Charles Rafferty, from Sistersville, was arrested last night by Lieuts. Terrill and Lukins on a bench warrant from the U. S. court, he having been indicted. He was found in Mollie Boyd's house, in the Second ward.

Send in Your Certificates.

It would be well for the county committees of both parties to get a move on themselves in regard to sending in certificates of officers nominated on the county ticket. The time is growing very short. The certificates should be left with Clerk of the Circuit Court John W. Mitchell. A word to the wise ought to be sufficient.

The Union Veterans Legion.

The ex-soldiers of this city met in the jury room at the city building last night and organized an encampment of the Union Veterans Legion. The room was crowded with the boys, and forty names were signed to the application for a charter, which will be obtained in time to muster in some evening next week. Everybody present was highly pleased with the turnout and expect to have a large crowd for muster.

Why Boden was Released.

"Susy" Woods, a colored lady, arrived in this city two weeks ago from Columbus, Ohio. Not long ago she gave a letter addressed to her mother, Mrs. Mary E. Waters, No. 114 Long street, Columbus, to "Babe" Boden to mail. The letter contained $2, but when it reached its destination it didn't. This moved Susie to cause Boden's arrest last evening. He was taken to the lockup and U. S. Commissioner B. J. Campbell sent for. The commissioner said the matter did not come under his jurisdiction, and on Boden promising to refund the $2 he was released.

At Clerk Hook's Office.

Two marriage licenses were issued by Clerk Hook yesterday, as follows: Harry Diehl, aged twenty-three years, and Josephine Emmerling, aged twenty-one. Charles Poundstone, aged twenty-five years, and Edith Mildred Francis, aged eighteen. Ellen Braddock was appointed administratrix of the estate of John C. Braddock, deceased. Bond $1,000, with Mary McGrail as surety. Nicholas Gaus was appointed administrator of the estate of Eliza Gardner, deceased. Bond $200, with Benjamin F. Bachman as surety.

U. S. Circuit Court.

The United States circuit court held a brief session yesterday morning, and adjourned the term. The only case heard was a motion to set aside the verdict in the case of McBride & Fetzler vs. the Logan Oil Company. The jury had given the plaintiffs $2,300. The case was finally compromised, the plaintiffs accepting $1,000.

Circuit Court.

In Part I of the circuit court yesterday, Judge Campbell on the bench, G. Jeffrey Front, a native of Austria, was admitted to citizenship.

S. J. Crothers vs. L. M. Crothers, in chancery, the declaration of the plaintiff was filed.

Henry Helfenbine vs. Hannah and T. P. Bedilion, in chancery, the defendant moved to dismiss the case because three months had elapsed between the service of a summons and the filing of the bill.

The same action was taken in two other cases by the same parties.

The case of Russell & Co. vs. John M. Sweeney, in assumpsit, was up before Judge Paull. The defendant's plea was refused and the case adjourned to a future day.

THE COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

The Fairmont Pike Toll-keeper—The Columbian Celebration, etc.

The Board of County Commissioners met yesterday in regular monthly auditing session. Little was done outside of the routine committee work. Three candidates were named for toll-keeper on the Fairmont pike, vice James C. Cochran, deceased. They were John Finnegan, Henry M. Wiedebush and J. W. Brunell. On the fifth ballot Finnegan was elected. A small number of petitions for corrections of erroneous assessments were referred to the board of equalization and appeals. The board resolved to participate in the celebration of the Columbian quadro-centennial, and Messrs. Gruse, McGregor and Bates were appointed to represent it on the general committee. The committee on court house and jail was authorized to grade the Fifteenth and Koff street fronts of the new county jail and build such walls as necessary. The country members and county engineer were instructed to mark the district lines where necessary. Engineer Clem Smith had at the board's rooms a map, showing the election precincts in the city districts, which is a work of art.

BRIDGEPORT REPUBLICANS.

They Turn Out in a Way Which Paralyzes the Opposition.

At Bridgeport last night the McKinley club held a large and enthusiastic meeting, and at the conclusion of the business, which demanded attention, the uniforms and lanterns were distributed to the members. After adjourning, the club and other Republicans turned out and paraded through the principal streets, headed by a drum corps. There was a large representation in line of business men of prominence in the town, and altogether the turnout was such a surprise to the community, and especially to the Democrats, that they were fairly paralyzed. The Democrats thought they were in it till this impromptu demonstration, but the turnout so far surpassed that of the opposition, after great blowing of trumpets and loud boasts of what was to be done, that the Democracy have not yet decided just what to think of it.

When Wheeling gives a big demonstration watch for the handsome turnout from Bridgeport in the line, and when there is a big show by the Republicans of Bridgeport Wheeling will go over and help paralyze the Democrats some more.

Union District Marching Club.

The Union district marching club met last night to perfect its organization. There were about eighty-five names on the roll. Officers were chosen as follows:

James Sheridan, captain. James McGuigan, first lieutenant. Ben Shuler, second lieutenant. A neat uniform was adopted consisting of a badge, Harrison hat and a neat cane.

A Good Meeting.

There was a fine meeting of the Washington district club in its hall last evening. This club turns out as large and enthusiastic audiences as any in the city, and the interest of its members is encouraging. County Chairman J. K. Hall was present, and explained the vagaries of the new kangaroo ballot law very clearly and interestingly.

Speech Friday Night.

Hon. S. G. Smith will speak to the Republican club at West Liberty on Friday evening, at its regular meeting. He will devote much of the time to talk about the new ballot law and the way to vote under it.

Notice to Voters.

The undersigned will be at the office of the Board of Commissioners in the court house from October 3 to October 8, inclusive, during the following hours: 10 a. m. to 12 m., 2 to 4 p. m., 6:30 to 8 p. m.—for the purpose of entering upon the list of voters any legal voter who may apply to be entered upon said list, and of changing from one district to another the name of any voter who may have moved since the listing was done. After October 8, no change can be made in said lists.

CHAS. T. BLANCHARD, County Assessor, First District. NOAH ZANE, County Assessor Second District.
